Dear returning singers, former singers, and prospective singers:

Greetings to all of you, the 2009-2010 choir season begins this Sunday, September 6th; I know this is Labor Day Weekend, if you are traveling, please join us on the September 13th. I am writing to invite all of you to sing with the Schola Cantorum this year, whether you are a returning, former, or prospective singer. Musical leadership for the services at Hope extend far beyond the organ bench and I would love to have many of you join me in the loft to lead our services, proclaim the Gospel in song, and beautify our prayer with music. Music is a vital part of Hope's worship life. The choir not only lends its voice in choral song, but supports the congregation as a whole by singing with the congregation. The work of our musicians is vital to our worship life at Hope. Please join us this year. Below you will find a few notes concerning the schedule:

- Most rehearsals will occur on Sundays after the 10:30 Divine Service. We typically start rehearsing fifteen minutes after the service concludes. This is usually at 11:45, give or take five minutes. It is important for us all to begin the rehearsal together so we can warm-up together, share information, and get off to a great start.
- The enclosed schedule will help you plan your calendar. Please know that it is very helpful to know when you will miss either a rehearsal or service. This helps me plan and insure that everyone's time is used efficiently. I also understand that a few of you have work schedules that prevent you from being at Hope on some Sundays, please know that I still appreciate it very much when you are able to sing with the choir.
- On January 23rd I would like to call your attention to the Schola Cantorum Workshop at Concordia Seminary. Please reserve this date if you can and plan to join us. The preceding evening Concordia Publishing House will also have a choral reading session that is always a great time to join other singers from the Saint Louis area and read new music, you are invited to join us.
- On 14 April 2010 Hope will be attending a concert at the Cathedral Basilica featuring The Choir of New College Oxford. By attending as a group we will qualify for reduced ticket prices as well as reserved seating. More information will be available in September at rehearsals.
- A few fellowship events as well:
 - 31 December 2009 - New Year's Eve Party following the 4:00 Divine Service at Kantor & Erica's
 - 17 February 2009 - Meatless Potluck at 6:00 p.m. before Ash Wednesday service
 - 23 May 2010 - Cook-out & Potluck at Kantor & Erica's following the 10:30 Divine Service (weather permitting)

This information should be helpful as you plan your year. Most other calendar items are as usual. I hope to see you all in the choir room on September 6th!
